What is a Strategic Inclusion Plan (SIP)?

Reflective Questions

A Strategic Inclusion Plan (or 'SIP') is a planning tool for services accessing the Inclusion Support Programme. It documents goals and progress, helping your service to ensure all children experience a sense of belonging.

After watching the video, try these reflective questions, either individually or at your next staff meeting or PD session:

Reflective Questions

How does a SIP link to your Quality Improvement Plan (QIP) and why might it be a valuable asset during the assessment and rating process?

How can a SIP help you get ahead when it comes to supporting the inclusion of all children at your service?
